Appendix Definitions

TIN (Tax Identification Number)

A TIN is a unique combination of letters or numbers assigned by a jurisdiction to an individual or an entity and used to identify the individual or entity for the purposes of administering the tax laws of such jurisdiction. Some jurisdictions do not issue a TIN and provide a functional equivalent instead.

Politically Exposed Persons (PEPs)

Politically Exposed Persons (PEPs) are individuals who are or have been entrusted with prominent public functions, their immediate family members, or known close associates.

PEPs are seen to poses a higher risk of money laundering than non-PEPs as their position potentially leaves them more vulnerable to corruption (bribery, embezzlement etc.). PEP status itself does not in any way incriminate individuals or entities; it does, however, put them into this higher risk category.

An individual ceases to be considered a PEP 18 months after he or she has left office.

Examples of prominent public functions include:

- a) heads of state, heads of government ministers and deputy or assistant ministers;
- b) members of parliament or similar legislative bodies;
- c) members of the governing bodies of political parties;
- d) members of supreme courts, of constitutional courts or of other high-level judicial bodies, the decisions which are not subject to further appeal, except in exceptional circumstances;
- e) members of courts of auditors or of the boards of central banks;
- ambassadors, chargés d'affaires and high-ranking officers in the armed forces;
- members of the administrative, management or supervisory bodies of State owned enterprises;
- h) directors, deputy directors and members of the board or equivalent function of an international organisation.

Note: No public function referred to in points (a) to (h) shall be understood as covering middle-ranking or more junior officials.

Family members include individuals who are related to a PEP either directly (blood relatives) or through marriage of similar (civil) forms of partnership.

Examples of known close associates include:

- Any individual who has joint beneficial ownership of a legal entity or legal arrangement, or any other close business relations, with the PEP;
- Any individual who has sole beneficial ownership of a legal entity or legal arrangement set up for the actual benefit of the PEP. If you belong to any of the above categories you are considered to be a Politically Exposed Person (PEP). SEB Life International is required to take steps to determine whether or not a customer (or a beneficial owner connected with the customer or service concerned) is a PEP, an immediate family member, or a close associate, of a PEP. As a result of some customers may be required to provide additional information and/or documentation to SEB Life International.
